KATIE SHOT BY

Bullets Into the Girl's Body.

She Had Cast Him Off for Another After an Engagement of Marriage.

Importuned by Her Maddened Lover, She Agreed to Meet Him.

SPECTATORS WANTED TO LYNCH HIM.

Crowd Followed the Prisoner and His Captors and Threatened to Wreak Vengeance on the Man Who Shot Down the Girl.

night made a desperate attempt to take the Read it in Sunday's Journal.

Should for a rope with which to hang Cooley to a lamp poast.

Before the mot could do anything more than make threats Captain Casey had Cooley handcuffed and a dozen officers had been summoned. Surrounding the prisoner and Captain Casey, they fought their way to the Third avenue cable line, where a car had been stopped. With two officers to gard Cooley, the car started on its way down the avenue, no stopp being made until East Sixty-seventh street was reached. The new placed in an college was hurried to the station and placed in a cell.

The new placed in an over. The East Side base its wonder-monger. He is irish and what has surrounded him? are the questions. Given the answers he will tell you couldn't possibly feel vaxed with the anti-religious spirit which has of late crept into its formed and a dozen officers had been summoned. Surrounding the prisoner and Captain Casey, they fought their way to the Third avenue cable line, where a car had been stopped. With two officers to gard Cooley, the car started on its way down the avenue, no stopp being made until East Sixty-seventh street was reached. Then Cooley was hurried to the station and placed in a cell.

The new play, "For the Crown," at the placed in a cell, when the crowd found that its intended by the crowd found that its intended by the crowd found that its intended being and dozen officers and their lives. He therefore elected to put on a white that you couldn't possibly feel vaxed with him. Later he told us that he had once officers had been and their lives. He is now driven daily to a mosque at the point of the sword, and is in the depths in the point of the sword, and is in the depths in the point of the sword, and is in the depths of the point of the sword, and is in the depths of the point of the sword, and is in the depths and their lives. He is now driven daily to a mosque at the point of the sword, and is in the depth him. Later he told us that he had once.

He is now driven daily to a mosque at the point of the sword and their lives. He wanted by the young woman and began paying ful, devoted attention to her. Before long he | And now comes a Chinese cartoonist and statement made to Coroner Hoeber last city."

Good Things Galore

Romulus and Remus have in their nursing experiences been paralleled. Reared by a wolf foster-mother, these eminent gen-Thomas Cooley Sent Five became a very much advertised, not to say cruel Treatment of a Prominent senior member of the firm, taking wrath at some slights of his partner brother, turned loose one day and very thoroughly and efficiently killed Remus. However, that is another story; we are wandering from

This is the proposition: A modern Romulus and Remus have been found, two human bables suckled by a wolf mother It is a double case of Rudyard Kipling's

Mogli, the man cub, over again.

The whole story of this benevolent old she wolf, who widened ber heart and turned over her milk supply to two help-less human bables, will be told in to-mor-row's paper. Rend it as a companion piece Worthy Play-Rochefort's Adto the Little Red Riding Hood history of your childhood days.

Twelve hours, from noon to midnight with Lole Fuller, the lithesome. The very anouncement has an engaging sound, and Crazed by jealousy, Thomas Cooley last coughly interesting story of the theatres. oughly interesting story of the theatres.

life of Kate Flynn, to whom he had been affianced, but who had recently cast him off the X ray from the misty pigeon holes of the possible, has sent a full, succinct of the possible, has sent a full, succinct of the possible, has sent a full, succinct of the possible of Cooley is n a cell at the East Sixty-fourth Street Station and Miss Flyon, with five bullet wounds in hed head and back, hovers between life and death at the Flower Hosbetween life and death at the Flower Hosbullet wounds in hed head and back, hovers between life and death at the Flower HosSunday's Journal will enable it to lay

The possible, has early a full, shearing forth of some of his latest and he has dared to write since a massacre in his town two months ago. He was comparatively a wealthy man three months brook, in her nightle, from the Houston street indians who rushed upon the stage.

He posed as the curtain fell—and my spirits fell with it. It seemed to me that he might and percently for the least starty and seventh Street Station, prevented a lynching then and there, for the crowd was in savage mood, and when the leaders saw the body of the seemingly dying girl they shouted for a rope with which to hang choose to a lamp poast.

As were announced in these dispatches, are think I will offer Lillian my heart," he said, "and acquaint her with a few facts after marriage. I have three wives living and no before his eyes and of being killed him self, are the offspring of his character and his environment. What is he naturally? and what has surrounded him? are the Cooley to a lamp poast.

As were announced in these dispatches, are think I will offer Lillian my heart, "he said, "and acquaint her with a few facts after marriage. I have three wives living and no reasonable man can hope for more than four." He was so amiable and naif about the revolutionary element of the church sold think I will offer Lillian my heart, where with a seventy founded a new party, called is mor seeing his children and wife killed before his eyes and of being killed him four." He was so amiable and naif about the revolutionary element of the revolutionary

Then Cooley was hurseld to the station and placed in a cell.

When the crowd found that its intended will have been taken from it, the leaders hooted the police and denounced them for defending the prisoner. The street was blocked long a ter the ambulance had come and lookers declare smack of brimstone. In fact, the best East Side opinion is that widowed mother and brother in a flat at over in New Jersey, but whether this adds No. 417 East Eighty-first street. She has anything to their mighty charm can only as worked for years in the cigar factory of a truth be guessed at. However, the story the popular point of view, which after all typed command of ordinary melodrama, cois Coppee is considered masterly. From Or, "drawing hetself up to her full height," she would have shricked, "Let me pass." Foster, Hillson & Co., at Thirty-ninth of what this Galway necromancer does, street and First avenue. It was more than how he lives in his poor, squalid cellar, the gard to the acting drama, the intensity and strength of what this mother was a carpenter and lived with his mother and lived with his mother and lived with his mother was a carpenter and lived with his mother and strength of emotion, the tableaux, the story of the popular point of view, which after all sale would have a mania for passing, in common melodrama. Clifford Dempsey's play, however, as I said before, is unconvening and strength of emotion, the tableaux, the titenal. and four sisters at No. 213 East Seventy- teresting articles in to-morrow's Journal, action and spectacular scenes are so contin- Lillian was tied on a cot by Sam Lee. ninth street. Cooley was greatly attracted Read it and feast your taste for the wonder- ual as to dissipate that duliness usually devoted attention to her. Before long he was an accepted suitor and a day was set for the wedding. For some reason the for the wedding. For some reason the marriage was put off and at last Miss Flynn met another man, for whom she learned to love more than for Cooley. Who this man is both she and Cooley region at learning the state of the pilay is staged in the Lyceum's most magnificent manner and richly cosmost magnificent manner and richly cosmo Who this man is both she and Cooley re- ground in the foreground of a picture, and tuse to say.

Last night she agreed to meet him, and says that she intended to tell him than the says that she intended to tell him than the control of the says that she intended to tell him then unusual, to say the least. The fullest exthat he must cease bothering her any more. She told him that she would be at Eighty- plied to New York will be, however, found and worthy play, inspiring acting which She tota him that she would be it highly plied to New York will be, however, found in that she would have been too cheap. The Government had better seek to amend that street and Third avenue at 6:30 o'clock in Sunday's Journal. The pig-tailed artist orate the deplorable condition of the public limits o and for him to meet her there. Cooley contemplates harl-kari if his work is not is of an equally high character. and for him to meet her there. Cooley contemplates harl-karl if his work is not was on hand, and with him was a friend, an American success. Get the Sunday Jour-Clement Scott, in the Telegraph, raves Barkis was willin', but the door wouldn't Edward Cunningham. Cooley refuses to nal and critically review the efforts of this over it with his usual gush. Watson, of the get. In mental agony Noble Heart was away their lives and energies on starvatail of what happened afterward, and Cunchinese Whistler, and write him what you hink him contradicts himself in many ways. Chinese Whistler, and write him what you think of it. Address your heated views to think of it. Address your heated views to castles for the Emperor at public expense. Miss Flynn, however, in an ante-mortem "Kal Kee, care the Journal, New York don, says "It is not easy to overpraise this was still burning. He returned in about Besides the granting of the appropriation."

struck her she had no idea of danger.

According to the statement of witnesses

Miss Flynn was met by Cooley and Cunningham when she got off the cable or the toes of her clocked hoslery to ningham when she got off the cable or the toes of her clocked hoslery to ningham when she got off the cable or the toes of her clocked hoslery to

ningham when she got off the cable or the clocked hoslery to

ningham when she got off the cable or the clocked hoslery to

ningham when she got off the cable or the clocked hoslery to

ningham when she got off the cable or the clocked hoslery to

ningham when she got off the cable or the clocked hoslery to

ningham when she got off the cable or the clocked hoslery to

ningham when she got off the cable or the clocked hoslery to

ningham when she got off the cable or the clocked hoslery to

ningham when she got off the cable or the clocked hoslery to

ningham when she got off the cable or the clocked hoslery to

ningham when she got off the cable or the clocked hoslery to

ningham when she got off the cable or the clocked hoslery to

ningham when she got off the cable or the clocked hoslery to

ningham when she got off the cable or the clocked hoslery to

ningham when she got off the cable or the clocked hoslery to

ningham when she got off the cable or the clocked hoslery to

ningham when she got off the cable or the clocked hoslery to

ningham when she got off the cable or the clocked hoslery to

ningham when she got off the cable or the clocked hoslery to

ningham when she got off the cable or the clocked hoslery to

ningham when she got off the cable or the clocked hoslery to

ningham when she got off the cable or the clocked hoslery to

ningham when she got off the cable or the clocked hoslery to

ningham when she got off the cable or the clocked hoslery to

ningham when she got off the cable or the clocked hoslery to ningham when she got off the cable or the clocked hoslery to the ningham when she got off the cable car. her last hairpin. It will illustrate her with the season—'The Prisoner of Zenda' and and Lillian was saved. Cooley at once began taiking earnestly to cuts of the sort which drive emotional nature. The Sign of the Cross'—being pronounced. The horse did it all. her, and the three walked down Eighty-first street to Second avenue, and along detailed study of the topography of the that to Seventy-ninth street. There they tailor-made girl. Locate her plus to the HENRI ROCHEFORT'S ADVENTURES.

in Sunday's Journal. DRIVEN TO ISLAMISM

Armenian Family by the Turks.

Their Lives Saved in a Massacre by a Coerced Conversion to Mahommedanism.

Worthy Play-Rochefort's Adventures in English,

By Julian Ralph.

smacks of tights, electric lights, spangles cial says that a letter has been passed of coffee-colored herolam, and burnt stenne chapters before the scenes, while its last Armenian for whom many Englishmen him to me at the start. It is so rare to get Anti-Semites in Germany will not submit to the Crown, and declaring that they were divides itself between stage and dressing divides itself between stage and dressing divides itself between stage and dressing and Americans have great respect, and a hero whose tongue has been cut out, that quietly to his recent expulsion from the unswervingly determined to make every sacrifice for the perpetuation of their conpital. Edward Cunningham is also locked them before the million readers to-morup as a witness.

The Turks just as well have had a tongue, if he inhave plundered everything he possessed, vidson's recasting in the mould of English out, "Unhand me, sir." That is the stereo yesterday, that the province of Alsace-Lorty-seven years old, who lives with her His medicines—herbs, all of them—he digs verse of the poetic Alexandrines of Fran-typed command of ordinary melodrama. raine refused to appropriate 200,000 marks synonymous with literary excellence.

drams. Perhaps the most important fea- thirty-three seconds, astride of his beautiright, says that almost until the best shot. There will be an article in Sunday's Jourture of the occasion is that it rivets on the full trained horse Wonder, and simply rode would have been an unconstitutional act.

"The Arm of the Law."

osy hope in an equestrian melodrama now being played at the People's Theatre in the Bowery. The melodrama is called "The Arm of the Law," but the wild, yet rosy hope, lies in the legs of a horse. The horse The Famous Anti-Semite Leader belongs to Mr. William O'Dale, who is in reality the star of the play, which is "written by and produced under the direction of" Clifford Dempsey, Mr. O'Dale has done what scarcely one actor in a thousand Bound to Obtain Popularity as the would do. He has given up the heroic pos-sibilities of the part of Noble Heart, the Indian, which he plays, for the sake of his beautiful trained horse, Wonder.

"FOR THE CROWN" A BIG SUCCESS. dued and unusual subjection of self to art to horse, I mean-that his sacrifice mus be recorded. It shall be recorded. I don't believe that Irving himself would obscure his own glories as O'Dale has done-and under the elecumstances, it is quite mee that Irving and O'Dale should be mentione in the same breath. In the first place, Mr O'Dale has cast himself for a mere panto London, Feb. 28.-A Constantinople spe- mimic role. Noble Heart, the Indian, is ful and grease paint. The story has its first round during the last two days from an charm of character, but he can't talk. He chapters before the scenes, while its last Armenian for whom more Profile and dumb, and that fact endeared

Mr. O'Dale has shown such a lovely, sub give an indication of even the place from Arm of the Law," proved to be somewhat which he writes.

Mr. O Daie, in the mat two acts of the Law," proved to be somewhat ordinary, in spite of his delightful tongue-fore the last shot was fired they were clamoring for Cooley's life. Only the chance presence of Acting Captain Casey and Detective Herlihey, of the East Sixty- a near shot at his future as well, from the and gone, and it was not until nearly midnight that the crowd was cleared away.

Kate Flynn is a handsome woman, twenKate Flynn is a handsome woman, twen Kate Flynn is who immediately sprinkled the floor of the the poor are neglected.

And he rescued her, you think? No. No. I wouldn't have written a line about this In conclusion the paper maintains that

The horse did it all. For once we have the democrats, who thereby express their a melodrama in which the hero couldn't disapproval of the exceptional laws now rescue, and the horse could. To be sure, prevailing in the Federal Government. Wonder's feat was not as impressive as turned east, intending to go to First ave- end that when sitting in the dark with her Henri Rochefort's "Adventures" are about it might have been. The door fell too

There is just the germ of a wild, yet JEW-BATER STOECKER

Marshalling His Forces Against Hebrews and Gentiles,

Founder of the Christian-Socialist Party.

BITTER COMMENTS ON THE KAISER.

Adverse Criticism from the Metropolitan Press on the Attempt of Officials to Pamper to Imperial Whims at Public Expense.

By Henry W. Fischer

Berlin, Feb. 28.-The irrepressible Dr. Stoecker, the ex-Court Chaplain, is again

The "Modern Luther," as his admirers ave to call him, was too closely identified not yet arrived, but when it did it would with the notorious Baron von Hammer- be laid before the House. permit him to remain in the party's ranks. the resolution was passed in the Canadian LAST lohe Ochringen has publicly denounced him The shooting was done at a time when East Seventy-ninth street and Second avenue was crowded with men and women on their way home from work. Many of them press of every felon's thumb as fast as the malefactor is corralled. This is in additional to the malefactor is corralled. This is in additional to the identification of criminals by the massacre with a little girl three years old in his arms, his wife, who was in a delicate or their way home from work. Many of them press of every felon's thumb as fast as the initial time, however. At the end of the second act a highly thrilling scene occurred. Little Lillian had grown to pretty, svelte womanhood. She grew very thing ne possessed, and he found himself on the day of the massacre with a little girl three years old in his arms, his wife, who was in a delicate traud and that the massacre with a little girl three years old in his arms, his wife, who was in a delicate traud and that the massacre with a little girl three years old in his arms, his wife, who was in a delicate traud and the found himself on the day of the massacre with a little girl three years old in his arms, his wife, who was in a delicate traud and that the massacre with a little girl three years old in his arms, his wife, who was in a delicate traud and that the massacre with a little girl three years old in his arms, his wife, who was in a delicate traud and the found himself on the day of the massacre with a little girl three years old in his arms, his wife, who was in a delicate traud and that the massacre with a little girl three years old in his arms, his wife, who was in a delicate traud and that the massacre with a little girl three years old in his arms, his wife, who was in a delicate traud and that the three end of the second act a highly thrilling and his conditions. mined to make another appeal for popularity. This time he will seek his associations from among the Socialists and pro-

As was announced in these dispatches, he has recently founded a new party, called The Liverpool Tory-Democrat Gains His for the building of a hunting eastle and view to the convening of another internahut with sawdust and inflammatory oil. The Freisinnige Zeitung, Eugen Rich-Then this fiendish Mongollan set fire to the ter's organ, declares that, though the Hearing the cries for help, he threw him for having given the provincial council the opportunity to reject the imperial promelodrams. It would have been too cheap. the Government had better seek to ameli-

INCL. A THOSE IN SECONDARY OF THE STATE OF T BERLIN GOSSIP.

State took place. A small stone small provides and in reply to questions put by Detective Collins. The said in reply to questions put by Detective Collins. Statements that Cooley's name and home were learned. When the police visited his house they learned little. His mother and sisters were greatly shocked to hear of his erme and said they had never heard of Mass Flynn. Cooley, they said, had been at home nearly could not account for his sact. Association with boility force, selzed and put on the Governor Hocher was hastly summoned and fook her authenor. On the first tracking tracking the first tracking the first tracking the first tracking tracking the first tracking the first tracking the first tracking tracking tracking the first tracking tracki

HIS ROUGH INITIATION.

Frivolty by Breaking His Arm. Boston, Feb. 28.-S. W. Woods, of Banor, Me., the Harvard College sophomore, who was initiated lute the tenth "Ten" of the Institute of 1770, one of the oldest Harvard societies, and severely beaten last Thursday evening, in an interview to-day "The breaking of my amn was an accident, but I will say this much. I was Last Week Geo, bockbart's Elephants taken to a room and there himdfolded and The Parkins, Geo, Thateler, Mario-Dunkam, 46 oths. compelled to run the gauntlet. During the morning of the same day I was punched and pushed and some one grabbed me by the arm and gave it a yank. This, I think, is what broke it.

"I was preity roughly used, but the parties who did it would not intentionally cause me any injury."

tralian Love for the British Empire. London, Feb. 28 .- In the House of Comnons to-day Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, in reply to Mr. John W. Laurie, Conservative. stated that the Government had received copies of resolutions adopted by the Austo the front. The famous leader of the trailin Colonies expressing their loyalty nection with the British Empire. The resolution of the Canadian Gowernment had

Mr. William Johnston, Conservative member for Belfast, asked if any recogni-Despite the fact that Prince von Hohen- Parliament the entire assembly arose to DAY. their feet and sang "God Save the Queen."
This question was received with cheers.
Mr. J. G. MacNelli, National member for South Donegal, turning to Mr. Chamber-lain, asked: "Isn't it a fact that these colhave the management of their own

FORWOOD WINS A LIBEL SUIT.

Case Against the Railway Times-London, Feb. 28.-The libel suit brought by Sir A. B. Forwood, leader of the Liver. HOYT'S THEATRE, 24th st., near B'way, pool Conservatives, against the Railway HOYT'S A PLACK CHEER

WON'T OPEN INDIAN MINTS. Sallsbury Refuses Further to Discuss Another Bimetallic Gongress. London, Feb. 28 .- Mr. George N. Curzor in the Commons to-day, stated that the devernment had been approached with a tional bimetallic congress. To these repre sentations Lord Salisbury had replied that the had no desire to oppose the holding of such a conference, if good grounds were shown, but upon learning that the reopen-ing of the Indian mints was a necessary condition to an international monetary agreement, he had refused to confinue cor-respondence in the matter.

279-281-283 BROADWAY. "WE LIKE THE PLACE: WE ARE GOING TO STAY."

We have decided to locate permanently upon the spot where the Gans sale has given us such wide celebrity.

We hereby announce

HARLEM OPERA HOUSE—EVEN, 8:15; Sat., 2.

THE SHOP GIRL.

Next Week THE GOVERNOR OF RENTUCKY. We hereby announce

OUR OPENING Saturday, Feb. 29,

An Entirely New Line of CLOTHING.

Parker's Ginger Tonic cures inward pains

BUSINESS NOTICES Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for

Patronize American Industries---wear KNOX HATS.

AMUSEMENTS.

Harvard Boys Blindfolded Woods, Made Him Run the Gauntlet, and Ended Their Frivolty by Breaking His Arm.

HAMMERSTEIN'S OLYMPIA BROADWAY
EUROPEAN VAUDEVILLE and Occur
Hammerstein's Successful of Occur
Hammerstein's Olympia Broadway
Hammerstein's Oly

MARGUERITE ENOMENAL SUCCESS. THEATRE, Mat. TO-DAY RICE'S EXCELSIOR, JR. Prociors' PLEASURE PALACE.
58th St., near Lex. Av., 12 to 12, 250,,50c. Stalls & brs., $1,$1,50,$2, Profor's Theatre, 23d St., nr. 6th Av.

CASINO, TO-DAY AT 2 Canary & Lederer's Costno Company in T R E LA D Y S LA V E Y.

Soft Time-March 12 - Costly Souvents.

CASINO | 2 to 6 | "CABARIOT" | A CHAMBERS, 8 to 12 DI NEANE." |

Sartling Ulligation of "Cathode" Reve.

Startling Utilization of "Cathode" Rays.

FIFTH AVENUE THEATRE,
H. C. MINER, Proprieter and Manager,
ELEONORA DUSE,
Supported by HER OWN COMPANY.

Matinee CAVALAGRIA RUSTICANA
Today, AND LALIGANDIERA, Next week-Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday matines, MAGDIA.

Sale of Seats Now Progressing. Garden Theatre. A. M. Palmer, Sole Mgr.

THE TWO ESCUTCHEONS WITH A DISTINGUISHED CAST.

TO CHARTER. THE SPORTING DUCHESS DAY.

Last Mat. To-day 2. Evgs. 8.

Next Sunday Graham Concert. J. W. KELLY, LEW DOCKSTADER, A. LIPERATI and other strong numbers. Best seats, 25-50-75. EMPIRE THEATRE. Mats. Wed. & Sat.
MATINEE TO-DAY AT 2.
EMPIRE MARRIAGE.
COMPANY. Preceded by Marse Van.
GARRICK THEATRE. 36th St., pr. P. Way.
Richard Mansfield, Lassee; Chas. Frohman, M.gr. JOHN DREW | THE SQUIRE OF DAMES. STANDARD CHARLES H. HOPPER B'way & S3d St. Success CHIMMIE FADDEN

HOYT'S A BLACK SHEEP.
Seats Selling Four Weeks in Advance.
COLUMBUS THEATRE Week, and Sat. Mats. at 2. Wed, Mat. Pop. Prices, 25c. and 50c.
NEIL BURGESS-THE COUNTY PAIR.
Next Week, THE DEVIL'S AUCTION,
AMERICAN THEATRE, Matines Sacurday. 2d MONTH----BURMAH.

THE SENSATIONAL SUCCESS.
PALMER'S. Ergs 5:10, Sat. Mat. 2:15,
Grand Spectacular Production. FOR THE CROWN ALL ORCHESTRA SEATS, $1.50. MEW Brondway, bet. 20th & 30th ats.
IMPERIAL Entire New Variety Bill and Grand Hallet.
MATINEE TO-DAY.
DOTH PERFORMANCE, March 3-SOUVENIRS

KOSTER & BIAL'S MUSIC HALL, 2001 TO-NIGHT LOAD FULLER BOSTONIANS,

ROBIN HOOD. THE LILLIAN RUSSELL OPERA CO. THE GODDESS OF TRUTH. PEOPLE'S THEATRE, H. C. MINER, Prop. MATTINES SATURDAY, THE ARM OF THE LAW.

14TH STREET THEATRE, Near 6th ave.
LAST MAT, TO-DAY, LAST TIME TO NIGHT,
CHAUNCEY THE IRISH OLGOTT,
Next Monday-OLCOTT in The Ministrel of Clare.

PALACE,
SKATING DAY
AND NIGHT. IUD LEX. AVE. and 107TH ST.

Grand Opera House. A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S PREAM. Next Week, LITTLE CHRISTOPHER, STAR THE ATRE, B way & 13th St. Bea'rd Seats, 25c., 56c., 75c. THE WAR OF WEALTH. SANFORD'S THEATRE, 31st St. & Sd Ave.
Mutt. to-day & Tires.
DONNELLY & GIRARD in the New Relimbaters MINER'S NEW METEORS CO. MINER'S HOWARD ATHENAEUM

PASTOR'S. CONTINUOUS 20 & DERFORMANCE 30 cts. World in Wax and Grand Conce

PERSONAL

RELIGIOUS NOTICES.

CHURCH OF THE STRANGERS. Mercer st., near 8th st., one block west of Rev. D. Asa Blackburn, Pastor.

Preaching to-morrow at 11 a. m. and 7:45 p. a. Morning subject: "Call of Abraham." All sents free. THEOSOPHY.—Claude Fails Wright will-cture at Chickering Hall Sunday morning, 11 clock, on MADAME HLAVATSKY. Free. Organ recitals by Miss A. M. Indos